

Internet Safety for Kids and Parents

Don't let your children get caught in the Web!

Parents - Are your children safe surfing the Internet? What are the dangers? How could it happen in Sangamon County?

Meet with our group for some answers. Let the experts help you find the danger signs. Learn how to prevent internet predators from preying on your children.

Protect your family!

DATE: WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 2006
Or THURSDAY, OCTOBER 12, 2006
6:30 - 8:30 PM

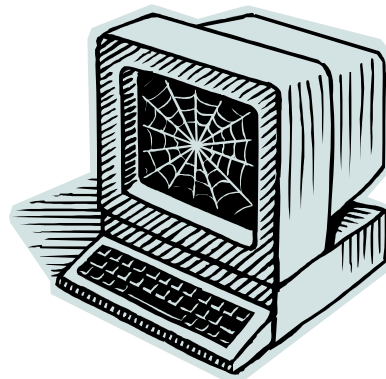

WHERE: CAPITOL AREA CAREER CENTER (CACC)
ACTIVITY ROOM A
2201 TORONTO ROAD,
SPRINGFIELD, IL

PRESENTERS:

- SPECIAL AGENT CHRIS LAMB, Federal Bureau of Investigation
- DETECTIVE MARK GARST,
Investigations Division of the
Sangamon County Sheriff's Office

TO REGISTER: CALL 585-8090 or email
Dianne Fulton: dfulton@roe51sdc.org
COST: $5.00

Hosted by: Sangamon County Regional Office of Education
Helen Tolan, Regional Superintendent
Dianne Fulton, Technology Coordinator