

Online Safety Guide includes Internet Safety Pledges with nice pdf's for different levels
<http://www.incredibleinternet.com/onlinesafety/Index.cfm?cid=215,223,227>

http://www.google.com/Top/Computers/Internet/Child_Safety/
A google list of many sites

<http://www.parentstv.org/PTC/internet/myspace.asp>
What is My Space? Article for parents and links.

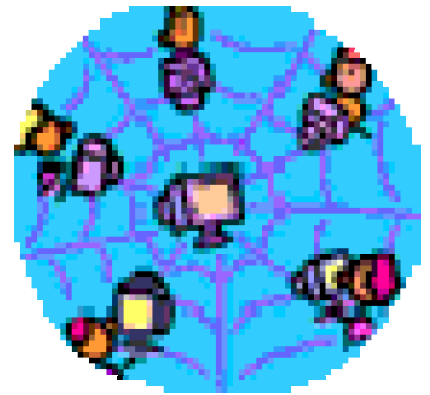

Really good power point with videos in it for presentations
http://criminaljustice.state.ny.us/missing/i_safety/videos_presentations.htm

Oprah's hour on Internet safety
<http://www.enough.org/inside.php?id=3C1E0WENG>
Requires Quicktime

<http://www.ala.org/ala/alsc/alscresources/forlibrarians/internettech/internetprivacysafety.htm>
Another site with information for parents and online quizzes for children

<http://www.packet-level.com/kids/>
Whole program to present On-line safety

<http://www.cyberangels.org/connected.html>
Information for schools, families, and Internet 101.

Younger Students

<http://disney.go.com/surfswell/index.html>
This is Disney's on-line interactive game to teach Internet Safety.

Don't let your children get caught in the Web!

Dianne Fulton
Technology Coordinator
dfulton@roe51sdc.org